CHOOSE YOUR SAMPLE OR ORDER CONFIGURATION

Adjust the camera manually to frame the feeding area. Choose the battery and camera options for your order. Ask about the drinking component and included accessories for your selected configuration.

Discuss image output, frame rate, App storage and service availability for your target market. Evaluate the feeder and App together before placing your order.

AIBIRDING is a brand of BOLAN TECHNOLOGY. Tell us your selected feeder, target market and estimated quantity to request a quote. Contact our team for sample pricing, availability and delivery options.
